When A Girl Marries

By ANN LISLE,

(Continued)

Irma Warren was leaning forward with unfeigned rapture. Poor child: she'd never known so much excite-ment. With a quick putting of myself in her place, I exclaimed:

"Yes—yes Go on, Tom. We'll dis-pense with the rhetoric and the sus-pensive element and take the meat of your story."
"It's this," said Tom, "Why can't you two girls, with Miss Warren's uncle, and Phoebe and Neal, come up to Hidden Brook for a week-end holiday?"

"Could we?" asked Irma Warren.

"Could we?" asked irma warren, shyly, turning rapturous eyes to me. How, on the one hand, I hated to say "No"! How, on the other, I couldn't say "Yes"!

To go off for a house-party without Jmi wasn't a thing I'd consider. Proper as it might be called, it had an unchaperoned look. I couldn't an unchaperoned look. I couldn't tolerate. And there was another con-sideration. It hadn't a right to weigh with me for a minute—it was the thought of Daisy Condon sneaking out of the shadowy corner of another restaurant the night before; Daisy restaurant the night before; Daisy speaking to Tom with an unexplained air of understanding—despit heer loneliness and lack of society and many beautiful clothes, scenes of society and lonelines are lonelines.

you want an undisturbed reunion." "Jim may get back, but I doubt it," I replied. "No—I just can't make it. A lot of little reasons that wouldn't be understandable to anyone but myself." "Perhaps you'd come, anyway?"

suggested Tom, turning eagerly to
Miss Warren. "Your uncle's a

That ended it; and Jom, who sel-dom brooks denial until he has tried wearing down al defences, accepted the girl's simple word as final. It amazed me—it was so unlike the headlong, self-seeking person I'd

All of this might have faded into the background and blended into the general memory of a pleasant though unusual evening if it hadn't been for the fact that Phoebe telephoned me next morning to suggest that she and Neal would like me to chaperone them for a week-end at a nearby lake. To refuse them would be cruel. Yet, in a way, it had been cruel to deprive Irma Warren of a good time. And to accept this second invitation, after refusing the first, were rude. So I told Phoebe a little about the situa-

"That's all right!" she cried, "Don't you see, they'll think you had to refuse because of a previous invitation—that is, if they ever find out."

(To be continued.)

Efficient Housekeeping

By BAURA A, KIRKMAN,

ANSWERED LETTERS.

Young Housekeeper: completely seal my jars before the process of sterilization, in the Cold Pack Method of canning? Every time I can fruit the sirup leaks out of the jars into the canner, but if I had the side wire clamped down this could not happen."

Answer: The cover on a glass jar must not be tight while processing because the air will expand when heated and if the cover is not loose enough. completely seal my jars before th must not be light while processing because the air will expand when heated and if the cover is not loose enough to allow the steam to escape the pressure may blow the rubber out or break the jar. Do not try it. If you had such poor success with the all-glass-top style of jar, try the Mason screw-top jar and partially seal it for sterilization in this way—either screw it down with the entire right hand until it entches, then turn it a quarter of a round back; or else screw it down with the thumb and little finger, not using force, but stopping when the cover entchs. No doubt the wire bails on your old jars have become stretched and loosened.

Bride: "Will you please give me a short list of good representative preserves for a well-stocked preserve closet? I have no idea what to put up. I can't afford many things."

Answer: Send stamped self-ad dressed envelope for my article on "What Every Preserve Closet Should Have." which I have had printed up to send to readers who write for it. This list contains a recipe for one jelly, one jam, one fruit butter, one conserve (for guest meals), one relish and one pickle.

Mrs. G. "My cousin used to make an uncooked salad dressing with condensed milk, egg, vinegar, and mustard but I have lost the recipe. Can you give it to me?

Answer: The following salad dressing reque was sent in to me by a reader-friend, and it is a splendid one, and evidently the one you refer to:

Uncooked Salad Dressing: 1 egg,

Uncooked Salad Dressing: 1 egg. Uncooked Salad Dressing: 1 egg, I can condensed milk, I teaspoon salt, I teaspoon dry mustard, I cup vinegar, Beat the egg, unseparated, with a dover beater. Add the milk and beat until very light, then add the sait. Mix the mustard and vinegar together and stir them into the first mixture. This recipe makes almost I quart and keeps indefinitely if kept in the refrigerator. It is excellent in the refrigerator. It is excellen for cold slaw and all kinds of saladsfor cold slaw and all kinds of salads— fruit, meat, or vegetable.

Daily Reader. "Please print a re-cipe for peanut cookies."

Answer: Peanut Cookies. Cream together 1-2 cup of sugar and 4 table-spoons of butter; stir in 2 well beaten eggs, 4 tablespoons of sweet milk, 1 heaping cup of bread flour which has been mixed and siffed with 2 termoons. en mixed and sifted with 2 teaspoons been mixed and sifted with 2 teaspoons of baking powder, 1 cup of finely-chopped roasted peanuts, and 1 teaspoon of lemon juice (or use vanilla extract if desired). Drop this mixture by teaspoonsful on buttered paper 3 inches apart, and place 2 half-peanuts on each cookle. Bake in a moderate oven for about 20 minutes,

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—Editor,

Poli Review

BEBEE

Elleen Sheridan seemed to carry off Elleen Sheridan seemed to carry off the top honors of a good show at Poil's yestenday, her novelty and character sengs making an instantancous hit, and the audience was not a bit stingy in showing how well she was liked. All in all, the show was one of the best seen in weeks at this house, and it is evident that during the present depression, with thousands of theatres closed throughout the country, only the best acts are being fortunate in securing bookings.

The Three Raymonds have a novelty act of the circus variety, that is,

The Three Raymonds have a novelity act of the circus variety, that is deserving of special mention, being a combination of a wire act and iron jaw. Two ladies and a gentleman from the trio, one lady performing on a slender wire, held in the teeth of the two other performers.

Prince and Bell, a gentleman with a pleasing voice and a lady at the piano, pleased with a neat offering along the usual lines.

"Trick Proposals" was the title of a musical comedy act that gave the a musical comedy act that gave the dozen or more performers a chance of doing plenty of singing and dancing with some light comedy spread throughout the offering.

Aesop's Fables, a novelty moving picture, taught the moral not to bras. The show was opened by the usual Pathe weekly.

Mae Murray in "The Gilded Lily." proved a feature picture of much speaking to Tom with an unexplained air of understanding—despit heer loneliness and lack of society and young companions, Irma Warren, sweet, dignified nicce of Graham Haldane, would get her chance in life. But Dalsy Condon worried me, haunted me, somehow. She was, you might say, the last straw. And that last straw weighed down the balance overwhelmingly against any thought of Tom's house party.

"I can't go," I said. "It's impossible."

"Is it that Jim might get back?" asked Tom, sticking it out, as usual, for the thing that was denied him. "You know he could join us—unless you want an undisturbed reunion."

"It may get back but I doubt "life in town." place in town.

EMPIRE

"Perhaps you'd come, anyway?"
suggested Tom, turning eagerly to Miss Warren. "Your uncle's a chaperone, you know."
"I've been thoughtless again," and, saying that, Irma Warren shook her head gravely. "I forgot uncle, There's his Sunday chess game. And he's so comfortable and happy at home—so little inclined to enjoy change. I can't leave him."
That ended it; and Tom, who seldow brooks denial until he has tried for procks denial until he has tried for procks denial until he has tried An exact reproduction of one of staged with reckless abandon, was different from any others the heroine has succumber to the wiles of the bad man' of the story, but in this picture she remains unscathed."

The supporting cast includes Jack Dougherty, Edward Cecil, De Witt C. Jennings, Florence Gilbert and Lenore Lynard. Wesley Ruggles directed the production.

"SERMONS IN STONES!"

Jack Norworth told a new Irish story back stage during his recent engagement here. An Irish stone mason was employed at building a church edifice. The minister was one who never lost an opportunity to deliver little religious messages to the men on the job. One day after having argued with Casey, the stone mason, he concluded by saying: "My dear man, you know there is good in everything. There are even sermons in stones."

"You're right," returned Casey,

"You're right," returned Casey, "There must ov been a sermon in th' sthone that hit me on th' top o' the bean th' other day. By gorry, it put me to shleep!"

Summer Recipes

Currant Sherbet

Stem and wash one quart of red currants, add two cupfuls of hot water and boil gently until the fruit is soft.

Strain, add two cupfuls of sugar and a teaspoonful of gelatine softened in two tablespoonfuls of cold

Stir until the gelatine is dissolved, freeze slowly, and when the mixture begins to congeal add the stiffly whip-ped whites of two eggs.

TOMORROW-SCATTERED LETTERS PRIZE-WINNER WILL BE ANNOUNCED

ON THIS PAGE!

TONIGHT LADIES FREE BROOKLAWN

Kool and Komfortable Admission (Gents) 40c Including War Tax McCormack & Barry, Mgrs.

WEST END

Tel. Bar. 7773. TONIGHT

MARY MILES MINTER

The Little Clown - 6 Acts 6 -

The Stratfield

OPEN DAILY 6 A. M. TO MID-In This new and popular departure we have embodied all of the su-perior features of Stratfield service

STRATFIELD HOTEL F. A. CANTWELL, Mgr.

HER NAME IS JOY!

LEATRICE WITH HAT.

In the press-matter which the Goldwyn publicity department so obligingly gives away, there are recorded the facts that Leatrice Joy is an actress, 5 feet, 2 inches in height, with black hair and brown eyes and that she was born in New Orleans, La., November 7th, 1897. But the uninspired record submitted merely proves anew the old adage that press-agents have no souls, for who with one of those would try to comwith one of those would try to com-press the charm and the grace of Leatrice Joy into cold statistical

Miss Joy's role of Bunty in "Bunty Pulls the Strings," develops all the humor and charm that he multitudinous friends have come to expect. For, after all, that is the really attractive quality in the Scotch lass who mended matters—charms, and it

Douglas Fairbanks is spending a nillion dollars, and it will take only three months. He has cut the strings of his purse, turned it upside down and is pouring a million dollars into a film version of "The Three Musadapted the story from Alexandre Dumas's novel. Fred Niblo, who di-

Edward Knoblock has

DOUG" SPENDS A MILLION

And She Was Born in the City Where Everyone Has Charm.

no doubt—New Orleans, famed for its levee, its women and its fizzes, the last, alas, now gone into that limbo which no Barleycorn ever returns. She was born in the far, fair city, on November 7th, 1897, and is one of the few actresses on any stage who doesn't hesitate to tell the date of her birth aloud. But after all, the others have reasons for their diffidence, perhaps.

of her birth aloud. But after all, the others have reasons for their diffidence, perhaps.

Leatrice was educated in the Sacred Heart Academy, in her own, native town, and it wasn't until 1915, just five years ago, that she entered a movie studio to work. A year later she interrupted her labors on the silent screen to play with a stock company in New Orleans, her roles being those she took in the films—ingenues. She has played with J. Warren Kerrigan in "A Dollar Bid," in "Man Hunter," with William Farnum, and in such productions as "The Miracle Man," "Blind Youth," "The Right of Way," and more. Her first work for Go'dwyn was in "Bunty Pulls the Strings" and she was next seen in a Gouverneur Morris story written directly for the screen, "A Tale of Two Worlds." Following that she was immediately cast for two photoplays to be released in the fall, "Ace of Hearts" and "The Night Rose."

Variety In Life.

Incidentally, if you doubt that there is vartety in the professional life of a movie actress, just consider that Miss Joy took a wide jump from Scotland, in "Bunty," to China, in the Morris story, for in "A Tale of Two Worlds" she is to be seen as a Chinese maiden, brought up as a Chinese maiden, humor and charm that be multitudinous friends have come to expect. For, after all, that is the really attractive quality in the Scotch lass who mended matters—charms, and it was for a person with that talent that Goldwyn looked to play the part, until the weary eyes of the catsting director alighted at last on Leatrice, and brightened.

She Is Charming:

It isn't strange, by the way, that Miss Joy should possess that most clusive attractive thing which, as you admit, is duite a different thing. But her role requires her to walk patter-patter and wear Oriental robes and consider the proprieties are expounded by Confucins. Her hoby is bringing coals to New-castle, for she has had installed in her home a minuture moving-pic-sture camera and projecting machine, so that when she is through working the thing which in the studios she can return home and watch the screen for her pleasure. She admits, also, that she has an ambutten moving pic-sture camera and projecting machine. So that when she is through working the horizontal robes and consider the proprieties are expounded by Confucins. Her home a minuture moving-pic-sture camera and projecting machine. So that when she is through working the part of the seen as a Chinese maiden that is, as an Americant maiden th

"The Gilded Lily"

For the first time in the history of East, scenes made by the Prizma process in natural colors have been incorporated into a feature picture. This is for "The Gilded Lily," featur-ing Mae Murray, which is being shown she continues to rise at the same rate that she has been in the film firma-ment there doesn't seem to be any doubt but what she will win her heart's desire.

She Likes Emerson!

However, the best way to win one's heart-desire is to keep in good mental and physical trim, and Miss Joy does both. She reads poetry—Emerson is a great favorite with her—and short stories, and she plays golf and tennis, and ehe motors, being the owner of a car which can be seen entering the great of the charity and the story. owner of a car which can be seen entering the gates of the studios early in the morning and leaving late at night. Also, she has an Airdale which is a great favorits not only of hers, but of the entire population of Culver City. So that with her work, reading, playing, and more, her life is full and busy, as a life should be. But all this doesn't convey that special quality which the press-agent so egregiously missed—the quality of charm, which makes her as popular off the screen as on and on as off.

off the screen as on and on as off

And is there a better quality for a coman and an actress to possess?

Write it on the blackboard: "No!"

picture itself.

"The Gilded Lady" is an original story by Clara Berapger, and was written especially for Miss Murray. It tells the story of a dancer in a New York club, and gives Miss Murphy unusual opportunities to display her histrionic ability and her skill as a dancer. In a monster cabaret set of rare beauty, Miss Murray executed two difficult dances, one a variation of the Spanish variety, the other a bubble dance.

The cast surrounding Miss Murray Paramount picture-making in the rected "The Mark of Zorro" is also directing "The Three Musketters."

"The pay roll is three times as heavy for this picture as it has been on any previous Fairbanks film," says John Fairbanks, Doug's brother, and business manager. "Our aim has been to get the best talent available, regardless of cost."

at Poli's.

Director Robert Z. Leonard, in explaining the reason for combining Prizma shots with the regular motion picture photography said that "The Glided Lily" lent itself especially to colored photography for the opening of the picture and that by use of it the main theme of the story could be more convincingly and effectively in-

Do You Know That-

Elaine Hammerstein's picture, in thich Niles Welch is her leading man, to be titled "When Youth Rebels"?

"Clay Dollars," with Eugene O'Brien the star, will Ruth Dwyer as leading woman?

Owen Moore has begun work on "The Forgetters," a farce-feature in which Kathryn Perry will play oppos-ite the Selznick star?

Ralph Ince has completed "A Man's Home," played by an "ideal" cast, which will soon be issued as a Selznick special?

The picture in which Conwa Tearle stars and Zena Keefe is lead ing woman is to be called "After Mid-night."

Niles Welch and Claire Anderson will soon act together on the screen in "Who Am I?"

William Faversham shortly begins acting, under direction of Ralph Ince, in John Galsworthy's "Justice"?

"Shadows of the Sea" will soon be casting Conway Tearle's shadow on the screens of the States and Canada? Elaine Hammerstein is unjustly sentenced to confinement in a girl's reformatory in "Handcuffs or Kisses"?

Eugene O'Brien, for the first time in a number of his pictures, marries a poor, honest and attractive working girl in "Is Life Worth Living"?

"Love's Masquerade" is the title of one of the pictures Conway Tearle has busied himself in producing in Fort

An aeroplane elopement figures in the story of "Borrowed Wings" soon to be screened by Elaine Hammer-

MEXICAN ORCHESTRA VISITS UNITED STATES

The latest country to send one of its leading orchestras to the United States and to use music specifically States and to use music specifically for the promotion of international understanding is Mexico. Forty-five musicians from our Latin-American neighbor crossed the boundary line at Laredo, Tex., late in June and are now preparing for an extended tour of the country The group is known as the Presidential Orchestra and was sent here by General Obregon, Chief Executive of the Republic, to help bring about closer acquaintance story by Clara Berapger, and was written especially for Miss Murray. It tells the story of a dancer in a New York club, and gives Miss Murphy unusual opportunities to display her histrionic ability and her skill as a dancer. In a monster cabaret set of rare beauty, Miss Murray executed two difficult dances, one a variation of the Spanish variety, the other a bubble dance.

The cast surrounding Miss Murray is composed of Lowell Sherman, former Lyric Stock company lead, Jason Robards, Charles Gerald, Legnora Ottinger, and Mrs. Pauline Dempsey.

Beauty Chats

By EDNA KENT FORBES.

Any time of the year is a good time to reduce if one is much over weight, but this particular period is perhaps the very best of all For a great number of the foods used in any reduction menu are the fresh fruits and vegetables from the garden, and these of course are difficult and sometimes expensive in the winter. But about this time of the year, and from now on for several months, the gardens are producing fresh vegetables, and the markets show unusual variety and not such high prices.

Rhubarb, either freshly stewed or canned, is splendid not only as part of a reduction diet but as a blood purifier, asparagus is good as vegetable or meat substitute, green peas and beans are tempting and delicious, tomatoes are valuable if one does not overeat of them, and the most delicious desserts are the strawberries and raspberries fresh from the gar-ious desserts are the strawberries and raspberries fresh from the gar-

The caloric value of these things is never very great. For instance the value of one stalk of asparagus is 5 value of one stalk of asparagus is a calories. An average serving of string beans is 15, caggabe 10, carrots 20, cauliflower 20, spinach or squash 25, tomatoes 50, while an entire ear of green corn is only 100, and it is this high because of the sugar it contains. These values are given for these foods raw or cockel plain If you add sugar in cooking the tomatoes, that increases the caloric value If you got at strawbornies with cream the you eat strawberries with cream the strawberries will not be fattening, but the cream will be very much so. In eating any dessert beware of a tablespoonful of sugar anywhere from 30 to 50, depending on its size.

Powder.—Lacipodium is a soft, satiny powder, which has this quality that you want. It is sold in any quantity as it is not a patented article. It is made from Egyptian lilies, without any other ingredient being added to it.

G. V. R.—Dark circles around the eyes and the mouth show there is internal derangement. A very sluggish liver might cause this, but you had better consult your doctor about it. If you send an addressed stamped envelope full directions for cultivating the hair will be mailed to you.

cultivating the hair will be mailed to you.

Bright Eyes.—You are 15 pounds overweight. Avoid starchy food, which will include white bread; also rich pastry, fat meats and all sweets. A list of foods on reduction would be too long to be printed, but you may have it by sending an addressed stamped envelope.

Miss M. H.—The cream is made by melting one ounce of white wax, one ounce of spermaceti and four ounces of almond oil. This should be done in a double boiler. Four ounces of rose water and one drachm of benzoin should be heated to luke warm, in a separate receptacle.

in a separate receptacle.

Beat the two mixtures together very slowly, as the rose water should be added to the oils in small quantities, until the whole mixture has become a soft fluffy cream.

AMUSEMENT CALENDAR

at Poli's.

A DAILY FEATURE

ON "THE THREE MUSKETEERS" Natural Colors In

POLI'S—Vaudeville headliner, "Trick Proposals," a comic opera in miniature, with pretty girls and capable ones; feature picture, Mae Murray in "The Gilded Lily," the story of a girl who was frivolous outside, but not in. Feature on at 3:30, 7:30, 10. Orchestra directed by Samuel Daver.

EMPIRE—Feature, Alice Lake in "The Greater Claim," a story that will stir your heartstrings. Feature on at 2:30, 4:15, 6:30, 8, 9:15. Orchestra directed by Charles S. Ferrett.

ELITE—Main and Charles streets. Feature, all-star cast in "Midsummer Madness," the story of a Cinderella who found that all her dreams came true. Feature on at 7, 9, Organ music.

AMERICAN—East Main and Jane streets. Feature, Roscoe Arbuckle in "Brewster's Millions," the story of a man who had so much money that he didn't know what to do with it. Feature on at 7, 9. Organ music.

CAPITOL—Milford. Feature, Dorothy Phillips in "Once to Every Woman," the story of a love affair that will make you wish you had one, too! Feature on at 2:30, 7:15, 9. Special music, Mrs. Florence Legere-Hayes, contralto, soloist; organist, Albert F. Brown.

STRATFORD-Main street, Stratford. Feature, Charles Ray in "Alarm Clock Andy," the story of a boy who was afraid to take a chance, but when he did—oh, boy! Feature on at 7, 9. Orchestra directed by H. J.

WEST END—State street and Clinton avenue. Feature, Mary Miles Minter in "The Little Clown," an interesting romance of the "big top." Feature on at 7, 9. Organ music.

BROOKLAWN PAVILION-Dancing tonight, ladies free. PLEASURE BEACH-Dancing and amusements. FAIRFIELD BEACH PAVILION-Dancing tonight.

ALICE LAKE "The Greater Claim" A METRO SPECIAL A drama of that in life which is more powerful than passion, and which is finer even than

Tel. N. 1092

TONIGHT 9:00 William DeMille's MIDSUMMER MADNESS with Jack Holt, Lila Lee, Lois Wilson, and Conrad Nagel.

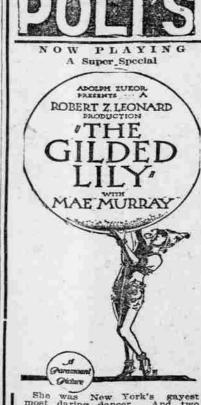

Dancing Pleasure Daily Ferries From Stratford Bridge Dock 8 A. M. to 12 P. M.

Genuine Panamas in the rough.
Direct from South America—made into your own style.
Ladies and Men's Old Panamas
Bleached Natural Process, No
Acids Used.

By A Hatter

THE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL 30th Year Begins Sept, 21st SUMMER SESSION PRIVATE WORK. July 12 to Sept. 2.

She was New York's gayest most daring dancer. And two men loved her. But one loved the tinsel and the glamour—the other loved the real girl the glamour—the other real girl.
Their conflict makes a drama of unequalled power and beauty. Scenically one of the most gorgeous pictures ever made, and Miss Murray's biggest triumph since "On with the Dance."

Words by Darl MacBoyle
Music by Edwin Ludig
Staged by Theodore Wilde
Produced by George Choos
A BIG CAST AND A BROADWAY
BEAUTY CHORUS

SUPREME VAUDEVILLE George Choos Offers A Vaudevillize Opera in One Act 40c A TRICK PROPOSAL' 11 A. M. to 2:30 P. M. OTHER GOOD ACTS THURSDAY FRIDAY, SATURDA STEPANOFF and his Russian Ball Sessue Hayakawa in "Black Rose

Announcing The GRAND OPENING

of the CANTON RESTAURANT

TODAY at 4:30 P. M. After being closed for nearly 3 months to make necessary alterations we desire to inform you that on the above date we will resume business and we extend to you an invitation to come and enjoy the food-the music-the dancing at Bridgeport's finest Oriental and American Restaurant.

New Inlaid Dance Floor

Music By Canton Orchestra

OPENING MENU Served from 4:30 to 8:30

SOUPS
Chicken Bouillon a in Little Consomme a la Asparagus
Chaice of One
Roast Young Vermont Turkey
with Almond Dressing—Cranberry Sauce
Sirloin Steak a la Minute
Lamb Chops en Casserole, London Style
Fried Spring Chicken a la Creole
CHINESE DISHES
Chicken Chop Suey with French Mushrooms

CHINESE DISHES
Chicken Chop Suey with French Mushrooms
Chicken Subgum Chow Mein with Almonds
VEGETABLES
Julienne Potatoes Sweet Peas
SALAD
Fruit Salad, Canton Style
DESSERT
Lee Cream and Cake
Tea or Coffee

55c

Best Food

Excellent Service

15

New

Booths

Tomorrow's

Noon-Day

Lunch

Tomorrow's Noon-Day Lunch

Mashed Potatoes

Turkey Broth 10c—Consomme with Egg 10c
Choice of one
Roast Milk Fed Chicken with Apple Dressing
Boiled Dinner a la American Fried Chicken Halibut Steak Liberty Sauce
Roast Eastern Pork Apple Sauce
Roast Sirloin of Beef Au Jus
Crab Meat Salad with Mayonnaise Dressing
Beef Chop Suey with Green Peppers
Chicken Chow Mein
Vegetables
Sweet Corn Southern Style
fashed Potatoes

Sweet Corn Southern Style Coffee Jello with Whipped Cream Tea or Coffee

Turkey Broth 10c-Consomme with Egg 10c

11 A. M. to 2:30 P. M.

Open Every Day From 11:30 A. M. to 1:00 A. M.